Column of Virgin Mary in Prague Blessed

As we have already informed on the pages of this periodical No. 6/2020, the renewal of the Marian Column was completed on 4th June this year on the Old Town Square in Prague. The column was blessed by the Archbishop of Prague, Dominik Cardinal Duka OP, on 15th August 2020, the day of the Feast of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary.

The blessing was preceded by the service in the nearby Church of Our Lady before Týn, which was attended by a number of Czech bishops, abbots of monasteries, priests, members of religious communities and many hundreds of believers, including many members of the Church Law Society.

During the blessing, the sculptor Petr Váňa, who worked enthusiastically on the column for more than twenty years, inserted a painting of the “Virgin Mary of the Square” into the sanctuary in the pedestal of the Marian Column. According to tradition, the mayor of the Old Town, Mikuláš František Turek from Rosental, had the picture hung around his neck during the defence of Prague in 1648.

Then, Jan Wolf, chairman of the Committee on Culture, Exhibitions, Tourism and Foreign Relations of the Prague City Council and a member of the Church Law Society, who significantly contributed to the restoration of the column, gave a short speech.
